

TWIN CITY CLUBS HAVE HOT GAMES

Same Old "Two Out of Three" Story in All of Contests in Bowling League.

H. ERICKSON ROLLS 232

Cubs and Cross Country Still Chasing Neck and Neck, With Moline Close Behind.

Colts	9	21	.300
Reliables	4	26	.133

There are nearly a score of members of the Twin-City Bowling league clubs who are thankful that the Churchill Colts have only one H. Erickson.

This pin demon stretched out his arm last evening and in the first of the games between the Colts and Cubs, he rolled out 232. Such a score would be sufficient to sicken the average opposing team, but the Cubs instead of depending largely on one bowler to keep up the score of the aggregation, used a little team work and succeeded in trimming the Colts two out of three. All of which was well done considering the start made by Erickson.

Good Scores.

Every team in the league last night surprised itself or its opponent and big scores was the run of things during all the games. The Cubs and Cross Country team are still neck and neck for the leadership of the league, with Moline within close enough distance to get up in the game with a little spurt of victories.

Each succeeding series interest increases in the Twin-City league and the bowlers will have a warm time of it before the season closes.

The result by games last night was: Cubs, two out of three from Colts; Cross Country, two out of three from Moline, and Stock Leaders, two out of three from Reliables.

WILL LIGHT FIERY CROSS IN ENGLAND, SCOTLAND AND WALES, SAYS JIM LARKIN

James Larkin, speaking in England (top), and immediately after his release from prison, carried shoulder-high.

Dublin, Ireland, Dec. 12.—The commanding figure in the Dublin transport workers' strike—the man who is keeping it alive—is James Larkin, secretary of the Irish transport workers' union.

Since his release from prison a few weeks ago Larkin has become the idol of the Irish laboring classes. He was given a seven months' prison term late in October, on an indictment charging him with sedition and with inciting to riot. Public indignation, however, soon became so great that he was released.

Immediately after his release, Mr. Larkin announced that he was leaving Ireland to light a fiery cross in England, Scotland and Wales. He began his campaign at Manchester with a strongly worded speech on Sunday, November 16.

Concerning this new power out of Ireland, a London Times correspondent has written:

"What manner of man is this James Larkin? He has fascinated many people who have come face to face with him—people who are idealists, and poets, and lovers and followers of high ideals and the heroic. There is an extraordinary mutability in Irish affairs. Mr. Larkin first appeared some three or four years ago. Today his name is in every man's mouth. He is the Will and the Fate to the multitude."

"A year ago a Dublin editor of an adventurous mind, going home in the small hours of the morning, took the way that led through a slum. There was a lit window—someone ill, evidently—and across the panes was scratched in chalk or paint, 'God bless Jim Larkin.' There's something more in Larkin than we know," said the editor.

Larkin was born in Liverpool, of Irish parents, some 40 years ago. Now, his fighting career has added a word to the language—"Larkinism."

THREE COLLEGES ORGANIZE LEAGUE

Augustana, Monmouth and Illinois Agree Each to Have Two Debating Teams.

A triangular debating league between Augustana college, Monmouth college and Illinois college, the latter of Jacksonville, Ill., has been perfected. A three years' contract, binding the three institutions, has been signed by all parties. By the terms of this contract an annual triangular contest will be staged between the three schools during the first week in April. According to the arrangements, each school will turn out two teams for each debate. The affirmative teams will stay at home. Augustana's negative team will go to Monmouth, Monmouth's negative will go to Illinois college, and Illinois will send its negative logicians to Augustana. The question to be debated next April is:

"Resolved, That the federal government should conduct the express business of the United States, constitutionality waived."

The first preliminary try-outs for the Augustana team will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The two teams will not be finally chosen until after the holidays, however.

Augustana considers that it has engaged two worthy opponents in Monmouth and Illinois. The latter institution is especially strong in debate, having met Lake Forest for a number of years and winning in most instances. Debating relations with Lake Forest were severed this year by Illinois, after which Augustana was invited to take its place. Illinois college is the oldest institution in the state, having been organized in 1829. William Jennings Bryan is a graduate of Illinois.

KILL CATARRH GERMS USE BOOTH'S HYOMEL

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender inflamed mucous membrane infested with catarrh germs—breathe Hyomel. All druggists sell it.

You cannot reach the nooks and crevices of the breathing organs with liquid preparations; there is only one way—breathe a few times daily the germ-destroying air of Booth's Hyomel. It acts directly on the inflamed membranes and destroys the catarrhal germs.

If you suffer from offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, spasmodic coughing, or any other symptoms of catarrh, use Hyomel at once. It will destroy the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs, and give quick and permanent relief, or money refunded by Thomas Drug Co.

The complete outfit including pocket inhaler and bottle of liquid costs $1.00, extra bottles of liquid if later needed, 50 cents.—(Adv.)

PENMAN BLAMES DRUG FOR CRIME

Murder Case Defendant Testifies He Can Remember Little of Night of Killing.

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 12.—While women almost fought to gain admittance to the trial, Gus Penman, charged with the murder of Harold Shaw of Urbana, took the witness stand yesterday and testified that he had no recollection of the killing. He explained his condition the night of the murder by saying he had been drugged.

"Shaw called me a long-legged giraffe, then struck me," Penman swore. "That is all I remember. I don't remember shooting him or beating him with a club. The first I remember was when I was in bed that night. Then I thought: it was all a dream. I got up and went to the pasture to see if it was so. I saw the body and cried."

Penman testified that after a stranger gave him in a Danville disreputable house, a tablet he believed to be a breath perfume he was in a dazed condition. He said he had carried a revolver all that day. The state contended that he got the weapon just before going to the Penman pasture with Shaw.

The defendant was subjected to a long cross-examination by the state.

last night in an attempt to discredit the drugging story and show that any illness suffered by Penman was due to drinking beer.

The entire day was consumed in hearing witnesses for the defense. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penman of Philo, father and mother of the defendant, testified, and other witnesses from Philo gave the defendant a good character.

The defense offered its first expert testimony today. Alienists and local physicians have been summoned as witnesses.

Macon, Ga.—Fire that destroyed the Hotel Williams here drove more than 50 patrons into the street in scanty attire. Two women were rescued from a second-story window by firemen. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lorig, who were married Sunday, lost wedding gifts valued at $3,500.
